Commenting on the award, ICBC Turkey's Chairman of the Board Xiangyang Gao noted: “Receiving 6 platinum and 6 gold awards -a total of 12 awards- in both Commercial Banks and Diversified Financial Services Categories at the 2020 Vision Awards, organized by the League of American Communication Professionals (LACP) – one of the most prestigious platforms in the world – is a very valuable and honorary result for us. Since 2015, ICBC Turkey – Turkey's first Chinese bank – has become an important international subsidiary of the ICBC Group. In this short period of time, we have succeeded in establishing a strong brand in the Turkish financial sector. We have been successfully conducting our financial activities in Turkey for six years with our versatile business model that includes commercial, retail and investment banking. We are very happy to have been rewarded in this way for these reports, in which we summarize the sectoral activities, explaining our industry and our work. As ICBC Turkey, the unlimited support we provide to the Turkish financial system and economy continues, and these awards particularly motivate us.”
